My Choices:	Pros-Positive Consequences:

Cons-Negative Consequences:

For this week:

Start making better social skill decisions with the 'Choices and Consequences Scenario' game.

Try it by yourself, or with others, to see how you cope when life throws a problem your way!

Scenários:

Scenario A:

You have been involved in a dance group since Kindergarten and it is with kids outside of the school you attend. You enjoy dance, but it takes up a lot of your time. You have the opportunity to spend your next few weekends with friends from school. If you spend time with your school friends you will be missing several important group dance competitions and will be letting your team down.

Scenario C:

You and your friends are having an online conversation using Snap Chat. While you started innocently making fun of a friend, somewhere along the line it turned nasty. People are calling her mean names and spreading rumors. You want to defend her and help, but you also believe one of the rumors and want to add your comments as well.
