Design a sport that people can play together even when they are physically far apart. The goal is to create a high interest game that requires physical movement.

You must work collaboratively with 2-4 people at a distance using email, shared documents, chat, or video conferencing.

To start, go online at Invent a Sport.

You have until next Thursday to show us what you have invented.
A Virtual Certificate will be awarded to the most creative and unique sports inventions!
