THE SPACE COLONIZATION DILEMMA:

INITIATIVE ACTIVITY 1

You're on a team picking crucial items for a far-off planet colonization. What would you select, and how would you rank them for survival and happiness in the new environment? This is your task as future space travelers.

INITIATIVE
ACTIVITY 3

WORKING, WITH LIMITED SUPERVISION:

Pretend you are in a job interview for a dream job and have been posed the following question: “Describe a time when you took initiative.”

Make sure to use the STAR response model to frame your answer:

Situation – clearly set up the scene of the example and describe the situation including relevant background information.

Task – What was your role?

Action – What products/services were you personally responsible for?

Result – What happened? Clearly describe the end result.
