INFORMATION LITERACY ACTIVITY:

Choose a current event:

- Select a recent news story or trending topic.
- Research from multiple sources: Find articles or reports about the event from at least three different sources (news websites, blogs, social media).
- Compare the information: Identify any differences in how the story is presented. Are there any conflicting details or points of view?
- Evaluate credibility: Consider the reliability of each source. What makes one source more trustworthy than another?
- Present your findings: Write a short summary explaining which version of the story seems the most accurate and why. Reflect on how you determined which sources to trust.
