LEADERSHIP ACTIVITY:

Good leaders help solve disagreements so the team can work well together. Today, you will practise handling conflicts and finding fair solutions. Here's your task:

Read this situation:

Your group is working on an Environment Awareness project. Two friends in the group have different ideas:

- One wants to make a poster.
- The other wants to create a presentation.

The group is stuck and cannot decide what to do.

- On a worksheet, write how you would listen to both friends' ideas.
- Suggest a solution that works for everyone, like combining the ideas or taking turns.
- Explain how your solution would help the group work better together.
