Summarise the Story: Write a brief summary of what happens in the story. Focus on the key events and the misunderstanding between the characters.

Explore Emotions: Consider how the old lady felt when she thought the man was eating her biscuits. What emotions might she have experienced?

Alternative Actions: What could the old lady have done differently to resolve the situation in a more positive way? How could open communication have helped?

Personal Reflection: Think of a time in your own life when a misunderstanding could have been avoided or resolved by having an honest conversation. Write a short paragraph about the situation and what you learned from it.
