SOCIAL SKILLS ACTIVITY:

1. Read the story below.
2. Think about how each character might feel at different points in the story. Consider:
 - How does Mohamed feel when he realises Abdullah is letting him win?
 - How does Abdullah feel when Mohamed confronts him?
3. Write about how the two friends can resolve their issue. What steps could they take to communicate openly and strengthen their friendship? How can a similar situation be prevented in future?

There were two best friends, Abdullah and Mohamed. Abdullah was a very outgoing and friendly person, while Mohamed was more introverted and quiet.

One day, they were playing a game of chess. As the game went on, Mohamed started to become increasingly frustrated as he was losing. Abdullah, not wanting to hurt his friend's feelings, started to let him win.

Mohamed eventually noticed this and confronted Abdullah about it.

At first, Abdullah was embarrassed and tried to deny it. But, after some honest and honest discussions, the two were able to come to a solution.
