

A couple, a man and a woman, are walking along a grassy path next to a calm lake at dusk. The woman is wearing a white jumpsuit and holding a glass, while the man is in a light-colored suit. To their right is a modern white caravan with a dark lower section, featuring a large open door and a wooden deck with lounge chairs and candles. The background shows a dense forest of evergreen trees and distant mountains under a twilight sky with soft clouds. The scene is reflected in the still water of the lake.
