French

We had great fun learning our classroom instructions during our French lessons. Play the same game at home. Ask someone an instruction and see if they can follow it. Then switch roles and ask someone to give you the instructions.

Use the picture clues to help you.

#247 You have probably written 24 words in 7 minutes, but can you use these numbers (2 4 7) to create as many calculations as you can in 7 minutes? Remember to use all 4 operations.

Handwriting

Well done to last weeks winners; Zafeer from Hazel, James from Holly and Amelia from Hornbeam.

I am looking for three new heroes this week. Good luck!

Supporting your team

Participating in all sports

Organising down to the last second

Running, leaping, jumping, hopping

Time running short

Sunny weather

Daring to push our limits

Always supporting, never criticising

Yielding the victory cup!

Send a copy of your poem to Mrs Johnson via Purple Mash email.

Online activities

We looked at maps and compasses a few weeks ago in Geography. Use this link to learn about how things are drawn on maps. There is a quiz at the end to test your knowledge.

Chapter 6 of Clean Sweep is in your Purple Mash 2Dos...Max shows Mark and Lisa there is more to him than meets the eye. There is a multiple choice quiz and a newspaper report too!

Spellings

How have you been getting on with your spellings? Can you make up a phrase to help you learn your spellings?

My favourite is Sally Anne Is Dancing to remember that 'said' is spelt 's-a-i-d' If you can, tell us how many you can spell correctly.

Get Active Week Reminder

Make sure you keep taking part in the active challenges at home, record your score on your sheet and let us know at the end of the week!
