Dear Parents/Carers

Odd Sock Day!
Anti-Bullying Week 16th – 20th November 2020

This year's theme for Anti-Bullying Week is 'United against bullying' and we will be taking part in activities about the part we play in working together to end bullying.

On Friday 20th November, to celebrate the end of Anti-Bullying Week at school, we are asking children to come into school wearing colourful or wacky odd socks!

Andy Day is a CBeebies star and his band 'Andy and the Odd Socks' are huge supporters of the anti-bullying alliance, which is where the idea originates.

The socks could be chosen to make your child stand out from the crowd and show their uniqueness and individuality. They could be short socks, long socks, sports socks, home decorated socks, socks with dangly bits, socks with spots – any kind of sock you like!

All children must still wear their school uniform, but with colourful socks that can be worn over the top of tights, or with trousers tucked in to.

As always, please do not go to any additional expense – normal school socks are fine if you have nothing else at home.

I look forward to seeing some silly socks!

Yours sincerely
