

Street Dance At Fairlands School Year 2-6 Upper Hall

Street dance starts after school every Tuesday at 3:15-4:05pm as from 18th May for the Summer term.

Please note: Please be aware that the street class will form an additional bubble due to children attending from different classes within the school. They will be kept socially distance within the dance class.

If you wish to join the full payment for the term is £52.20 and must be made in advance prior to the first lesson. Once we receive your registration form, we will allocate your space and send out an invoice with our secure online payment system. We do not accept cash payment however alternative ways of paying will be highlighted on the invoice.

COVID procedures are in place, once registered we will send out all the relevant information for this.
