At Fairlands...

Everybody has the right to feel safe in school and the responsibility to keep others safe.

Feelings are feelings; Behaviour is chosen.

When we feel good about ourselves, we behave better, work harder, learn more, and form better relationships.

I/We will:

Make sure my child attends school regularly, arriving punctually in the playground by 8.50am.

Make sure that the school is informed if my child is absent for any reason.

Ensure my child wears the correct school uniform.

Communicate openly with the school on any issues of concern, in a calm and helpful manner.

Attend parent consultations.

Model and support the school's behaviour expectations and policies, including reward and sanction systems, both at home and on school premises.

Inform the school of any behaviour difficulties at home and of any trauma which may affect my child's performance – e.g. a bereavement or divorce.

Keep the school informed about my child's health and any medical problems.

Provide a supportive environment for my child to complete homework, working with my child as much as possible.

Support my child's class and school events and make every effort to contribute to the cost of trips and visits.

School

We will:

Work to create a caring and supportive community for everybody, where children and adults feel secure and involved.

Promote high expectations of all children and aim to motivate them to make good progress.

Encourage children to be kind, thoughtful and respectful to everyone.

Encourage children to take care of their surroundings and their belongings.

Inform the family of their child's progress throughout the year.

Implement fairly the school's behaviour expectations and policies, including reward and sanction systems.

Let the family know about any concerns that affect their child's work or behaviour.

Keep the family informed about school activities through regular communication.

Listen to the views of families and children.

Offer a range of curricular activities throughout and after the school day.

Share information about children sensitively and appropriately, maintaining appropriate confidentiality.

I will:

Follow the Five School Rules.

Treat one another with respect

Try our best

Listen when others are speaking

Care for all resources

Walk calmly and quietly

As well, I will:

Enjoy being at school and have fun!

Wear my school uniform with pride.

Tell someone if something is worrying me.

Take a pride in my class work and school work.

Learn how to share, take care of my own and other people's things and put things away where they belong.

Tell the truth.

Try to think before I act.

Accept my responsibility to keep others safe.
