

The Lënster Lycée International School is recruiting a full time Economics teacher (m/f) / Fixed-term contract

Missions

- To provide for the instruction, education and training of students in secondary education in English;
- To ensure that pupils are educated in a spirit of citizenship and civility;
- To co-ordinate the collective and individual learning of pupils, giving each the time needed to achieve the learning objectives.

Profile and required competences

- Know how to organise, lead and manage a class or group of learners;
- Know how to design and implement learning situations and construct knowledge and skills;
- Know how to design and implement differentiated teaching methods;
- Know how to structure a lesson;
- Know how to manage school time;
- Know how to evaluate learning;
- Master information and communication technologies Know how to use media and tools;

People skills

- Excellent command of the English Language;
- Familiarity with the socio-cultural context of the school community and sensitivity to the multicultural environment;
- Ability to deal with the ethical dilemmas inherent to the profession;
- Ability to communicate in a regular, consensual and coherent manner, respecting the general rules
- Ability to work as a team player;
- Ability to establish a relationship of exchange with parents, members of the school community and external partners and to feed the dialogue with relevant information;
- Ability to contribute to the education of pupils.

Assets

- Knowledge of the German, French and/or Luxembourgish language(s) is an asset.

Duration of the contract

- The term of the contract is fixed from 15 September 2024 to 14 February 2025.

Application procedure

If you are interested in this position, you can apply as soon as possible by sending your application by e-mail to jobs@llis.lu or by post to the following address:

Lënster Lycée International School
Secrétariat de Direction
2, rue Victor Ferrant
L-6122 Junglinster