

Temporary School Chef

We are looking for an enthusiastic Chef to join the school's busy catering team on a temporary basis until the end of the academic year.

The Tiffin Girls' School is driven by creating a positive food culture and helping our students eat better, healthier food. This role will support the catering team to provide the highest-level quality of student meals, working towards excluding processed food from the menu offer, adhering to health and safety and food compliance standards.

We aim to provide healthy attractive food options for students with limited budgets. Serving time is limited and we need a fast and speedy operation to prevent queues developing.

The ideal candidate will:

- have a catering background, qualification and a genuine passion in catering
- Knowledge of allergens and benefits of providing good nutritional food.
- Enthusiasm to seek and implement new ways of providing a quality and cost effective service
- Appreciate the need for high standards of hygiene and cleanliness in a commercial kitchen
- Enjoy working under pressure as part of a very busy team

The successful candidate will already have relevant Food Hygiene qualifications or must be prepared to undertake training.
